First Game With Mobile

This afternoon on the arrival of the 2:45 car Pete Betancourt's semi-professionals from Mobile and Villar's Pensacolas will cross bats at Palmetto Beach in the first game of the series of three.

This series promises to be the most interesting baseball that has been offered this year. Betancourt's outfit is well touted as being a fast bunch and it is up to Pensacola fans to encourage Villar's outfit to win by good attendance. Betancourt himself is said to be one of the fastest short infielders ever, and is well remembered in Pensacola where he played some years ago at the time the "old Pensacolas" were alive.

Pensacola has been very fortunate in baseball this year and now that the fans have a chance to see three really good games, the chance should not be overlooked. The managers have been put to no little expense in bringing the Mobile team to the city. Let it be said when the Mobile team returns home that Pensacola fans do appreciate good ball and turn out in force when the right article is forthcoming.

One of the features of the game this afternoon will be the pitching of young Atsinger for the Pensacolas. Atsinger is a youngster, but one of the heaviest youngsters doing box work in the city. He is a Warrington lad and Villar is using him on the recommendation of Jim Laird who thinks Atsinger is a wonder. If he holds Betancourt's bunch down this afternoon he may well be touted in the future as a phenom.

The Mobile line-up will be: W. Kelley, pitcher; Doyle, first base; Benser, left field; Benedict, second base; Pocase, third base; Betancourt, short stop; McNeal, right field; Walsh, pitcher; T. Kelley, catcher; Demorandville, center field; Broadway, sub.

WOMAN DRANK CARBOLIC ACID

Myrtle Lee, a White Woman, Swallowed Quantity Yesterday Afternoon.

Myrtle Lee, a white woman, inmate of a house in the tenderloin district, attempted suicide yesterday afternoon by taking a quantity of carbolac acid. How much of the deadly poison she swallowed could not be told, but sufficient was taken to throw her into convulsions.

Physicians were summoned and worked with the woman for an hour or more, finally restoring her to consciousness, and last night she was pronounced out of danger.

WAS FRIEND OF LEANDER SHAW

Edward Moclair Describes Negro Who Assaulted His Wife.

Edward Moclair, whose wife was last week assaulted by a negro who has never been captured, was in the city yesterday and called at The Journal office, where he gave some facts relating to the negro who committed the assault.

Mr. Moclair says that the negro is evidently a friend of Leander Shaw. He was seen with the latter around Gonzalez's mill for several days before Shaw was lynched, and afterwards he remained in that vicinity, though he did not work. The day that Mrs. Moclair was assaulted the negro disappeared and has not since been seen.

Mr. Moclair describes this negro, whom he believes to be the man, as wearing gray pants, a tan belt, and of ginger cake color. He is possibly six feet tall, square shoulders, well built and straight.

FUNERAL WILL OCCUR TODAY

Remains of Little Daughter of J. F. Taylor to Be Laid at Rest.

The funeral of Lucille Emma, the four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Taylor, will occur this afternoon at 5 o'clock from the home at the corner of Spring and Jackson streets, the remains having arrived last night from Cleveland, where the little one had met death while visiting in that city in company with her mother.

How Accident Occurred.
On last Thursday morning the child, accompanied by the nurse, went into the laundry, which is situated in the basement of the building in which Mrs. Taylor was staying. The nurse, who was engaged in washing some articles, did not notice the little girl as she mounted a low stool, some 7 inches high, which stood on the cement floor of the room, and before she could reach her charge, the child had fallen to the floor, striking the back of her head on the hardened surface. She did not appear to be seriously hurt, however, and walked up two flights of stairs before she commenced crying piteously.

She was carried into the presence of her mother, who, thinking that only an ordinary bump had been sustained, rocked and soothed the child as best she could, until it became evident that the tiny sufferer was being attacked by convulsions.

Physicians were summoned, but the child quickly lost consciousness, which, up to the time of her death, which occurred on Monday, was never regained.

The best physicians in the city were called in on the case, and the child taken to a hospital, but science appeared to be unable to cope with the situation, so satisfactory reason being given as the possible cause of death.

The father, meantime, had been wired of the situation at Pensacola and arrived before the death.

The little girl, who was a remarkably bright and attractive child, will be missed by many in whose lives she filled a part which was beautiful in deed, her childish simplicity and winning ways going straight to the heart of those who loved her. The obsequies today will be sad indeed, as the parents are heart broken over the tragic affair.

Interment will be in St. John's cemetery.

Escambia Democrats Organize Bryan and Kern Campaign Club

a vice president from every precinct in the county, together with a secretary and treasurer and an executive committee to consist of eight members to be appointed by the president, of which the president, the secretary and the treasurer shall be three, and be it further

Resolved, That we and each of us here and now pledge ourselves to give of our own means to the national committee such sum as and each of us may be able, and be it further

Resolved, That we and each of us hereby pledge ourselves to the work of securing funds for this campaign, and in every honorable way to work for the election of Bryan and Kern, and be it further

Resolved, That we invite the active co-operation of each and every Democrat in Escambia county and the Third congressional district of Florida, as well as every democrat in the state, to aid in this important work.

Membership Committee.
On motion of W. A. Blount, Jr., the chairman was empowered to appoint a committee of ten to solicit membership from every precinct in the county. The chairman appointed this committee as follows:

W. A. Blount, Jr., chairman; Jas. McLaughlin, J. S. Reese, Peter Lindner, F. E. Rodcliffe, Joseph Brown, H. P. Neuman, R. P. Reese, Geo. Soderlund and John B. Jones.

This committee was instructed to request each member of the county democratic executive committee to enroll the democrats of his precinct as members of the club, and the committee will report next Wednesday night when permanent officers will be elected.

After a brief discussion participated in by various members, the club then adjourned to meet in the courthouse next Wednesday night to hear the report of the committee and to elect officers.

Chairman Jennings requested every member to act as a committee of one, in addition to the committee appointed to solicit membership and to awaken interest throughout the county. It is desired to place a full democratic vote at the general election and one of the objects of the club will be to get that vote out.

HEAD ENDORSED FOR ORGANIZER

At a meeting of Pensacola Typographical Union held yesterday afternoon, Louis P. Head, of this city, was unanimously endorsed for the position of southern organizer of the International Typographical Union.

This position was created at the recent convention in Boston of the International Union, and as Mr. Head is well acquainted with the work to be done in the south, his friends are urging his appointment.

Telephone Talks

No. 5.

THE telephone has become such an essential feature of business and home life and is regarded so much as a matter of course, that many telephone users overlook the human side of telephone operating and consider the operators as merely part of a machine. Unfortunately they also have the impression that the telephone company, because it is a corporation, regards its operators in this same light.

A visit to one of our exchanges will be of benefit to any subscriber who holds these views. Our operators are an essential feature of our business. Their duties are important and upon their ability largely depends our success. The young women who hold these positions are especially trained to perform the duties of telephone operators.

In the first place, they are carefully selected. Not every applicant is accepted. There are certain mental and physical attributes that are necessary. The applicant must possess a pleasant, well modulated voice, her eyesight and hearing must be good and she must be even-tempered and of a patient disposition. She is trained to control her natural temper even under the most trying conditions. The importance of giving prompt and accurate service is impressed upon her from the first day she enters the training school.

This important feature of the business has our constant attention. We recognize the human element, not only in our operators, but in the great army of telephone users. If you could see our operators at work and observe their life in the exchange you'd understand better this feature of the telephone business.

HARBOR, RIVER AND MARINE NEWS

Shipping Transactions and Notes of Interest Along The Bay Front.

The steamer Vernon entered yesterday from Vernon and way landings with a cargo of 301 barrels of rosin and spirits.

The schooner Viola was among the arrivals of vessels yesterday with naval stores. She brought in 100 barrels from Choctawhatchee points.

The schooner Lottie sailed late yesterday afternoon with a heavy miscellaneous cargo for points up the Blackwater river.

The fishing schooner Clara R. Harwood, of the Saunders fleet, entered yesterday with a catch of 9,000 pounds of snappers.

The season for Spanish mackerel is now on and local fishing boats are making good catches. 5,000 pounds being brought in for Sammers & Co. Tuesday and 1,600 pounds yesterday. The fish are now passing Pensacola going east.

The steamer Belle arrived from Vernon yesterday with a cargo of 192 barrels of naval stores.

One hundred and one sail and steam vessels of 178 tons gross were built in the United States and officially numbered during July according to the monthly report of the bureau of navigation. The largest steel steam vessel included in these figures is the Wyandotte, of 2,955 tons gross, built at Ecorse, Mich., for the Michigan Alkali Company. Of the 101 vessels, 3 built 3 gross, 86 steamers built of wood, 2168 tons gross, and 12 sailing ships built of wood, of 2726 tons gross.—Shipping Illustrated.

If Secretary Root and a few other eminent American statesmen have been diligently bemoaning the absence of the Stars and Stripes in South American trade, had been at Iquique, Chili, when the American steamer Lansing recently arrived there, they might have said, "Hallelujah!" What the people of Iquique said, however, was, "Hardly knew you!" for it was the first American vessel to visit that place since 1865, and even the authorities of the port scarcely recognized the flag. It is stated that "the customs officials all came on board and looked the steamship over with much curiosity." Yet there are regular lines of steamers from New York to Chili chiefly owned by Americans.—Shipping Illustrated.

The British steamship Virginia Lake, which arrived at St. Johns, N.

F., on Friday afternoon from Labrador, reports that one of the worst storms ever known swept the Gulf of St. Lawrence in the latter part of July. She brought the crews of the following wrecked vessels: The schooner Victorian, Smith, lost at Red Point; Mary B. Kelloway, lost at Wild Light; Puma, Butt, lost at Sleigh Tickle; Dagmar, Butler, lost at Porcupine; Kingfisher, Young, lost at Tinkers Harbor; William R.
